PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO DO NOT BELIEVE

Lord, I come before You today to pray for (NAME).

You know (NAME) far better than I ever could. You know their heart, their story, their questions, and their pain. Nothing about them is hidden from You, and nothing about them is beyond Your reach.

I ask that You would soften (NAME)'s heart toward You. Where there is doubt, bring clarity. Where there is hurt, bring healing. Where there is resistance, bring gentleness that only You can bring. Remove anything that is blinding (NAME) from seeing who You truly are.

Surround (NAME) with people who will love them well, the way You love them, marked by patience and grace rather than pressure or judgment.

Give me wisdom, patience, and courage as I love (NAME), and help me to represent You faithfully in how I speak, listen, and show up in their life. May I surrender every conversation to the Holy Spirit and allow His words, not mine, to do the work only He can do.

I release (NAME) into Your hands today. I trust that You are already at work, even in ways I cannot see. You are patient, and You are not finished with (NAME) yet.

Thank You that no one is beyond the reach of a prayer. Thank You that You are pursuing (NAME) even now, and that You love them more than I ever could.

I pray this in Jesus' name, Amen.
